Mrs. H. H. Chace desires to inform the public that she is selling all trimmed hats at greatly reduced prices; also, that she is closing out all embroideries and laces at COST. Come and make a selection before the choice lots are gone.

The Union Revival Brigade, which has been holding meetings in a large tent near the M. E. Church, South, for the past three weeks, left Thursday for Independence. The meetings in Dallas were largely attended, and the services were of an interesting nature throughout. The members of the Brigade are all clever musicians, and their singing is above the average.

H. R. Patterson, of Portland, was a Dallas visitor yesterday. He had just returned with a party of friends from a cutting trip to the headwaters of the Big Luckinmate, where some excellent trout fishing was enjoyed. He will visit his parents in Independence until after the Fourth, and will then return to his work in the U. S. Custom House in Portland.

C. L. Starr, of Polk county, was elected president of the Superintendent's Department of the State Teachers' Association in Portland last week. Supt. Starr is one of the brightest and most energetic workers in the educational field in Oregon, and the honor was worthily bestowed. President B. E. Mulkey, of the Ashland Normal School, was chosen for second vice-president of the Teachers' Association.

Dallas will not celebrate the Fourth this year, and the people of this city will enjoy the day at Independence, Falls City or Salem. The motor to Independence will leave Dallas at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, arriving in Independence in time for the parade. A motor will also run between Corvallis and Independence, leaving Corvallis at 8 a. m., and Independence at 7 p. m. Boats will leave Independence for Salem at 9:30 a. m., 1:00 p. m., 4 p. m. and 11:00 p. m. Trains will leave Dallas for Falls City at 9:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Returning, will leave Falls City at 11:00 a. m. and 8:45 p. m.

WORK WILL SOON BEGIN

Orders for Material for Dallas Water-Works Are Now Being Placed.

Hon. H. V. Gates, of Hillsboro, was in Dallas the first of the week, looking after business matters connected with the construction of the city water-works. He has already placed an order for a part of the material needed for the plant, and will be ready to begin active work on the pipe-line from Canyon Creek in about two weeks. While here, he purchased of D. P. Stouffer a lot upon which to erect a work-shop and to store pipe and other building material. The lot lies adjoining the railroad track, directly west of Ed F. Coad's residence property.

It is Mr. Gates' intention to rush the work on the conduit as rapidly as possible in order to avoid the heavy hauling into the mountains after the rainy season begins. With the work in the mountains completed this summer, the laying of pipe in the valley and in the streets of Dallas can be carried on without interruption during the winter season. The building of the proposed system of water-works will require between five and six months' time.

Mr. Gates left on Tuesday for Klamath Falls, where he owns an electric light and water plant, and from that place will go to San Francisco to purchase tools and machinery needed in the work of putting in the Dallas plant.

County court is in session this week. City council meeting next Monday evening.

L. E. Braley, of Buell, was a Dallas visitor this week.

Deeds, mortgages and other real estate blanks for sale at the Observer's office.

David R. Isaac, of Falls City, passed through Dallas, Monday, on his way to Portland.

Miss Lina Stouffer arrived home Monday evening from a visit with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kirkpatrick and Miss Evangeline Kirkpatrick attended the carnival in Salem, Tuesday.

Dr. Mark Hayter's new cottage on Main street is nearing completion. It will be occupied by D. A. Madison and family.

SALEM IS CELEBRATING

Midsummer Street Carnival Draws Thousands of Visitors to Capitol City.

The Salem street carnival is drawing visitors to the Capitol City from all parts of Marion and Polk counties this week. The city has been crowded with people every day, and there is plenty of amusement for all. The carnival grounds on Wilson Avenue are cool and pleasant, and when brilliantly lighted at night present a most attractive appearance.

The coronation exercises were held Monday night, and were witnessed by an immense crowd of people. Miss Agnes Gilbert, one of Salem's fairest daughters, was crowned queen amid the greatest enthusiasm and applause.

Mayor C. P. Bishop made a brief address of welcome, and Governor Chamberlain followed with a happy inaugural address. Mrs. Hallie Parrish-Hinges sang the queen's song, entitled "May Morning," after which Queen Agnes formally opened the carnival. Queen Anna I, who so gracefully ruled at the W. O. W. carnival in Dallas a few weeks ago, was present, with her Court, as the guest of the Salem queen.

NEW SAWMILL AT LINNTON.

The Sultor Lumber Company is completing its large sawmill plant near Linton. It will be one of the largest mills in the vicinity of Portland, and will have a capacity of from 75,000 to 100,000 feet per day. New and modern machinery is being used, and it will be up-to-date in every respect. It will be about two months before it will be completed and ready for operation. The plant will occupy five acres. The main building is 200x36, beside which there will be the engine-house and drykills.

The main portion of the mill will stand on solid ground, the only piling required being for the dock. In front of the dock the water is 23 feet deep, enough to float the largest ship that comes to Portland. An electric light plant will be provided, so the mill may be run night and day, if desired.

Mr. Sultor is a well-known sawmill man from the East, but he has been connected with sawmills in Oregon for several years.—Oregonian.

Lee Bilyeu, an enterprising farmer of Bridgeport, lost a valuable mare from spasmodic colic Sunday afternoon. The animal was an extra fine one, and was valued by her owner at $150.

Miss Retta Campbell, who has been visiting relatives in San Jose, California, for several months, returned home this week. Her nephew, Walter Crider, accompanied her, and will spend his vacation in Dallas.

County Clerk U. S. Loughary issued license to wed this week to Emil Carlson and Eva Templeton, C. A. Pendra and Lucretia G. Robertson, Justin Hunter and Daisy H. Alderman.

On June 29, 1908, there were advertised letters in the Dallas postoffice for Charley Conley, Nick Carter, Miss Bertie Carlton, M. I. Chappell, John Galiger, Robert Miller, Mrs. Emma Perrine, D. Skelm and Miss Lulu VanReece. C. G. COAD, Postmaster.

A dispatch from Independence to Saturday's Telegram says: "Peculiar circumstances surround the sudden death Friday of Adolph Weiss, a farmer in this vicinity. In company with his son-in-law, Weiss was cutting wood a short distance from his home. Considerably exhausted he lay down on the grass and soon fell asleep. He slept soundly for a while, but upon awakening felt himself overcome with a choking sensation, and within three or four minutes he fell back dead. Every effort was made to revive him. Deceased was a Civil War veteran, and leaves several grown children."

Sonnet to Mount Hood.

Mount Hood! Thou grand, celestial, lofty height; Thou careful guardian of our peaceful land, Firm-fixed and stationed by God's prudent hand, To keep thy watchful vigil, day and night; Though ofttimes storms do hide thee from our sight, Yet, when the sun once more at God's command The gloomy clouds from vision doth disband, Again we see thee, grand, majestic, bright! Though other mounts to anger do give vent, And ruin cities with their pent-up wrath, Thou'lt never bow so low thy hoary crest, But ever stay a friend—as thou wast sent— Not sending floods of evil in our path, But calm, foretelling of Eternal Rest, Portland, Or. Hats Off

Your hat's off if it isn't our latest new style; better take it off and keep it off; too bad to see such a good looking man under a last season's hat.

An old hat looks suspicious; you can't afford to go around under suspicion. We're ready to put a new, up-to-date lid on you to-day.

Our shirts—Cluett, Monarch—are do-you-good shirts; good for your looks, your feelings, your pocket.
